ORDER:

It is stated that the writ petitioner already had alienated the property in question. In view of the same, at present the writ petitioner has no locus standi inasmuch as he is not interested in the property in question.

Accordingly, the writ petition is closed. It is needless to say that the interim order granted by this court no more would be operative in view of the fact that the writ petitioner is not having any subsisting interest in the subject matter of the writ petition. No costs.

(P.S.NARAYANA, J.)
